PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE

- Expertise in MS Word, Excel, Power Point, SPSS, Nvivo and End Note
- Teaching practice is a compulsory component of my department. As being faculty member of a teacher training institute, to conduct teaching practice practicum is my core responsibility as its In charge. I have to conduct a robust plan of activities for this phase of teacher training for students of various programs like MA Education and BS Education. To make groups of students, making contacts with schools to get permission to send those students for practice lessons, assigning duties to other colleagues to observe those students on daily basis and finally to make arrangements for final lessons of students under the supervision of chairperson of department along with external examiner are key roles and responsibilities of being In charge of teaching practice.

- Students' practical experiences in schools are incomplete without having sound knowledge and command over making and using various audio visual aids especially their selection of low cost material A.V.aids. Due to my prolong experience in teaching Educational Technology as a course I also guide and help them in making and selecting various A.V. Aids according to topic of the lesson which they have to deliver.
- I have created a liaison between schools and our department for the conduct of teaching practice.
- Educational psychology is special area of interest for me.I preferably take up courses based on Educational psychology while covering its scope like guidance and counselling. Most of my research publications and students' research work cover various domains of educational psychology as it is reflected in titles of research work of students who have completed their M.Phil. or Masters under my supervision. My doctoral dissertation is also based on students' self-concept. Furthermore, I have worked on emotional intelligence, academic self-concept, scholastic achievement, self-efficacy, self-regulation and types of motivation.
- Educational psychology and social psychology are always helpful for me in understanding nature of individual differences found in students which motivate me for opting most workable teaching techniques and dealing with students' behavior.
- Action research project is compulsory course in program of B.Ed. (HONS) which was started in our department in 2012 under USAID.I have conducted various projects of action research. Two of my research papers are also based on action research and further more projects are going on.
